

Take a Mission Trip To MEXICO

Take an active role in serving with Back2Back Ministries in Monterrey, Mexico through the many types of mission trips we offer! Back2Back takes great care in providing you and your group with a wonderful experience and opportunity to serve.

Our mission trips are usually one week in length, and each mission experience is action packed with lots of great projects and relationship-building. Balanced with a great deal of “kid time” is a strong work schedule designed to improve the facilities and living conditions for the children and communities we impact. We encourage anyone who has a heart to serve to come and join us! There are several different types of trips to choose from, and each one is life changing for our kids...and your group!

Church Group

Want to take your church's youth or adult group on a mission trip? How better than to serve widows and orphans. Join us for a mission experience where you and your team can enjoy serving together and focus on spiritual growth.

School/College Group

Back2Back offers school and college groups an opportunity to serve in unique ways. Organize a trip for your high school or college spring/fall break and we will provide many exciting ways for you to serve the Monterrey, Mexico community and experience the Lord in a real way.

Corporate/Business Group

Are you trying to find purpose at work? Are you a corporate leader that would like to combine some teambuilding while instilling a sense of serving others in your organization? If the answer is yes, then join us for a trip where like minded business people will serve alongside each other at the children's homes while fine tuning their communication and leadership skills on our ropes course.

Family Group

Are you looking for a unique way to model the love of Christ to your kids? Do you want to get away from work, school, cell phones, the TV and all the other distractions that are keeping your family apart? If so, then join us on our next family focused trip where you can begin to discover God's true love and His desire to be the center of your family.

